CIVIL ACTION NO.
1:08mc3418-MHT
(WO)

ORDER

In a submission filed on October 1, 2008 (Doc. No. 8), third-party plaintiffs H. Jack Mizell and James Timothy Turner state that: "Any officer of the Court who involves himself with this counterclaim will be added as a Third Party Defendant in this counterclaim." It is ORDERED as follows:

(1) The submission is treated as an objection to any other judge taking action in this case and as a motion to add as a defendant any judge who acts in this case.

(2) Said objection is overruled and said motion is denied. If third-party plaintiffs H. Jack Mizell and James Timothy Turner do not like any action taken by the undersigned or any other judge, they can always appeal to a higher court. They cannot, though, add judges as parties in order to prevent judges from acting in their case.

DONE, this the 8th day of October, 2008.
